

GRAPPA

Production: 500 bottles in suitable years

Best with:

Its signature silky texture develops over years as it is left to mellow in durmast barrels before bottling.

The company is producing two types of Grappa: the barrel's one, and the normal one, that presents a more dry taste.

The taste, the smell, the body of this aged wine must have a moment of appreciation and relax while drinking it.

Effective alcoholic strength: 40 %
